PROFILE

I'm a reliable and very trustworthy individual, who is aware of customer importance and a great listener capable of following written and verbal instructions; I'm happy being a part of a team but also capable of working on my own with great initiative. I also know how important confidentiality and health and safety are always in a busy environment and strive to stick to those rules. I'm very eager to use my existing skills and learn new skills that will enhance my development and success in the world of work.

EXPERIENCE

10/2018 - present Michael Wisher
Hospitality Staff
I work within restaurants and football stadiums serving food and drinks. I've mainly been placed with football stadiums providing customers with food and drinks. I also know how to pour a pint. I've also done kitchen porter jobs. I mainly work with retail behind the cashiers handling cash and taking the customers orders, making sure customers are satisfied with their purchase. I counted stocks and made sure all the food and drinks were counted before cleaning up. I've also worked as a waiter within restaurants for Michael Wisher delivering food and drinks to customers.
